

National Sponsorship Benefits

Attendance for leadership and staff at Congressional briefings. There will be a minimum of 25 congressional briefings in the next five years.

Attendance at quarterly meetings of the National Brain Council, including the opportunity to provide welcoming remarks.

The National Brain Council will run a paid media campaign using print and digital platforms to raise awareness of its mission and program offerings. The organization will be listed as a national sponsor on select print and digital advertisements.

Recognition on the National Brain Council website. National Sponsors may coordinate with National Brain Council staff on a press release announcing their sponsorship role.

The National Sponsorship fee covers all benefits for a three-year period. The Sponsorship can be renewed at the same fee within 3 months of the end of the initial three year-term.
