

Supporting Sponsorship Benefits

Attendance for leadership and staff at Congressional briefings. There will be a minimum of 25 congressional briefings in the next five years.

Attendance at quarterly meetings of the National Brain Council for executive leadership and key staff.

Recognition on the National Brain Council website.

The National Brain Council will run a paid media campaign using print and digital platforms to raise awareness of its mission and program offerings. The organization will be listed as a supporting sponsor on select print and digital advertisements.

The Supporting Sponsorship fee covers all benefits for a two-year period. The Sponsorship can be renewed at the same fee within 3 months of the end of the initial two-year term.
